

Retreat your senses

The Shillim Spa at Hilton Shillim Estate Retreat & Spa, located in the Western Ghats and a short drive from Mumbai and Pune, has been recognised as the 'Best New Spa' (Resort) in India at the GeoSpa asiaSpa Awards 2013. This recognition comes soon after the Shillim Spa was voted the 'Best Luxury Wellness Spa' in Asia and 'Best Luxury Emerging Spa' in India at the 2014 World Luxury Spa Awards last month. The Shillim Spa features among the largest and most comprehensive spa facilities in Asia encompassing 70 acres and offering more than 80 treatments.

Hilton Shillim Estate Retreat & Spa, nestled in the serene and unspoiled landscape of the Sahyadri mountain range in the Western Ghats and a short drive from Mumbai and Pune, offers a sanctuary for the body, mind and spirit. Spread across 350 acres within the 1,500-acre private Shillim Estate, the retreat features all-villa accommodation with butler service, extensive dining options and among the largest and most comprehensive spa facilities in Asia that encompasses 70 acres and offers more than 80 treatments. While Hilton Shillim Estate Retreat & Spa's mission "To conserve, to sustain, to heal" permeates every experience at the property, it is at the Shillim Spa that it is reinforced. This unique spa integrates the ancient philosophic, spiritual and artistic wisdom of South Asia with contemporary international practices and therapies to offer complete rest and rejuvenation.

Acknowledged as one of the most prestigious recognition in the field of wellness, GeoSpa asiaSpa India Awards showcase various categories that emphasize and recognize the best spas and spa products in the country. These awards also highlight the latest spa trends and luxurious spa treatments, and honour industry experts.
