How 600 precious artifacts were moved from Delhi to the Shanghai Art Festival 2015

For the Shanghai Art Festival, Writer Relocations had to move 600 valuable artifacts from New Delhi.

Writer Relocations provided an end-to-end service of transporting and installing the artifacts at the Shanghai Art Festival 2015.

We understood the gravity of what we were asked to do. These were artifacts that had history, emotion, devotion, and perhaps even prayer behind each of them. The challenge was to transport them without damage.

The challenges met were

- Pack and translocate 600+ artifacts and antiquities from Delhi to Shanghai
- Manage its clearance under temporary exports from India and temporary imports into Shanghai
- Unpack the artifacts at the festival
- Repack the antiquities after the exhibition ended
- Manage the re-export formalities from Shanghai
- Undertake the re-import procedures in India.

The important aspects to be complied with was to deliver back the antique to Delhi, India in one piece.

With 63 years of experience in moving art and antiques and 100s of cases of moving art under the belt, Writer Relocations succeeded in Moving fine art is a huge task.

Before trusting someone, it's natural to have a lot of questions. We've answered some for you.

1. What are Fine Art handling services?

Fine art handling is the safe and efficient transportation of fine art, paintings, and other art pieces from one destination to another.

These services are designed specifically for art galleries, individual collectors, and artists with installations. All of whom move artwork from one city to another, and sometimes, even from one country to another, for exhibitions and art shows.

2. Is Fine Art handling service only for art galleries?

No. This service can also be availed by individuals who are moving from one place to another and have a lot of art in their homes.

You simply need to ask your moving company for art handling services for your precious art pieces.

Writer Relocations provides within India moves as well as international relocation services, along with art handling and orientation services.

3. What does the art handling service include?

The art piece is picked up from the location and is wrapped and crated safely.

This is then moved to the vehicle in which it is going to be transported to its destination.

4. Will my artwork be safe?

Absolutely. Writer Relocations takes extra care of your artwork. We know how expensive and valuable these art pieces are.

We have expert professionals who are responsible for the safety of your art. They pack the art pieces with utmost care and crate them safely to ensure that they reach their destination undamaged.

5. How do I track my shipment?

When you give us the responsibility of relocating your art pieces, we will assign you a dedicated and experienced move advisor right from the beginning.

You can get an instant update about your shipment from him/her at any time. We will also provide your tracking details that you can use to track your shipment online.

6. Do you provide insurance services?

Yes, we do.

We understand that your art pieces are very expensive and highly recommend that you opt for the most suitable insurance depending on your shipment.

The experts at Writer Relocations will guide you through the insurance process. When filling the insurance paperwork, be as detailed as possible.

7. Do you provide storage facilities?

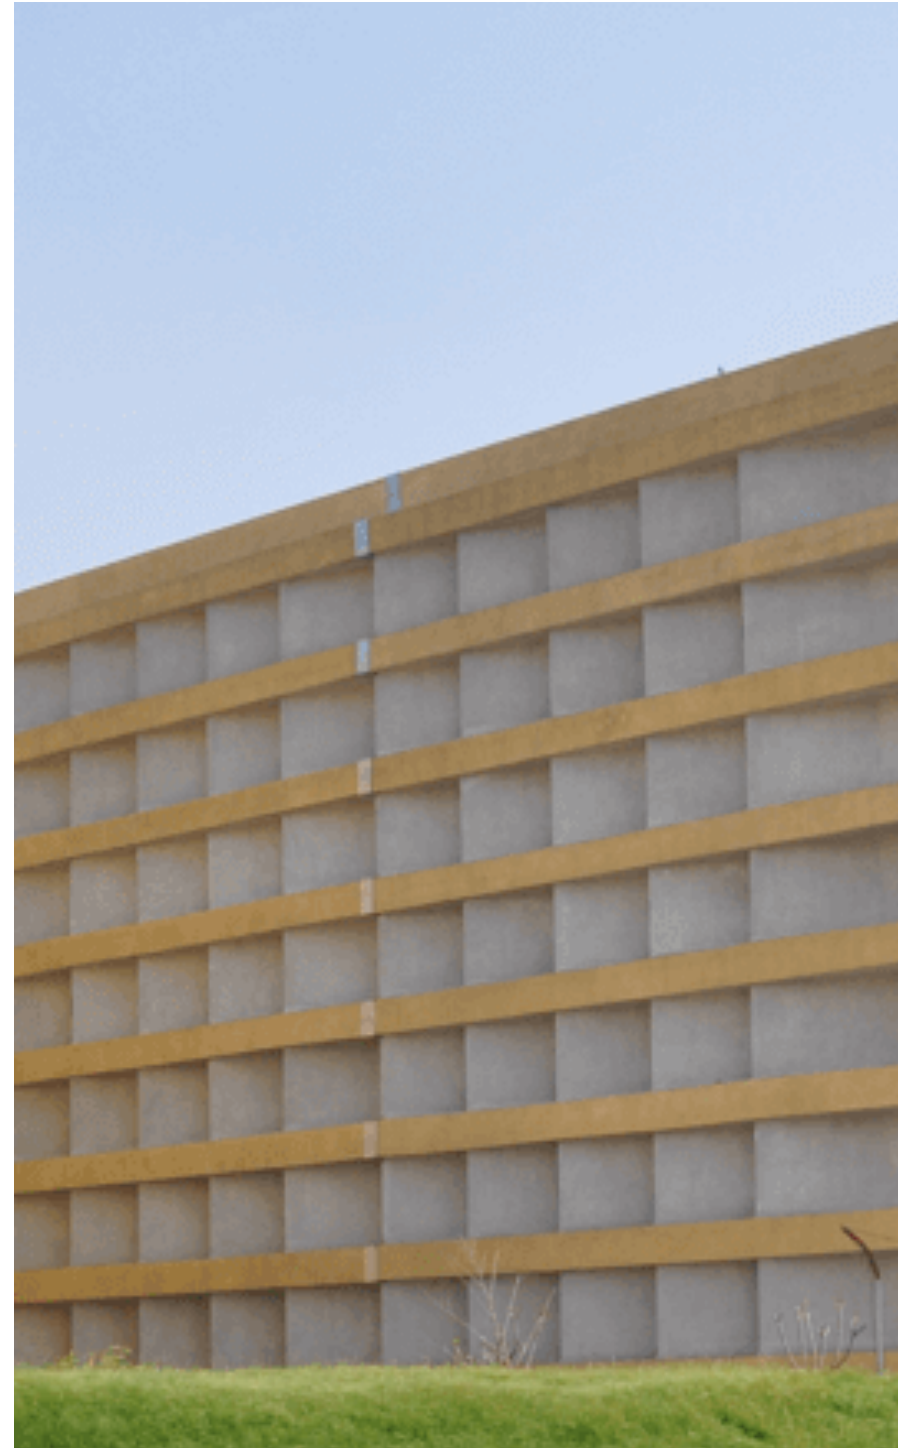

Yes, we do.

In case you need to store the shipment for a few days before it has to be shown at an exhibition, we can help arrange a short term storage facility for your art work.

We also provide long-term storage solutions. You can talk to an expert from Writer Relocations about your storage requirements.
