Case Studies

We mean it when we say choose Writer Relocations

<https://www.writerrelocations.com/> for a smooth move, the move itself isn't the only thing we help you with, we help you with everything related to the move too! Here are a few of the many cases where Writer Relocations has helped the customers with more than their move.

a) Upon completing his tenure in Korea a customer of ours decides to return to India, but he has concerns about import documents, duties regarding shipment and the customs clearance process.

The import advisory at Writer Relocations addresses the concerns of the customer.

The shipment formalities regarding export and physical inspection were dealt with in under 4 hours.

The shipment was delivered within 5 days (complying with formalities of course).

b) In this case, the shipment to be delivered was huge and the customer insisted that the packaging be done in front of him, this meant that intensive planning and scheduling be taking into consideration the client's schedule.

The customs duty was paid upfront on arrival in Mumbai and the shipment was moved to a temperature controlled facility.

The lift vans were packed on the first in last out basis to facilitate smooth retrieval and assembly at the destination.

FAQs

Now we know you may have questions yourself, but here are some of the frequently asked questions regarding international moving that we've answered for you.

A) When should I call a moving company to discuss an international relocation?

When moving abroad, you need to plan ahead to reduce any anxiety and surprise when you arrive at your destination.

This is why it is always better to talk to a professional moving company well before you move.

Ideally, you should call Writer Relocations, at least 7 weeks in advance of your move.

This gives both you, and us, ample time to prepare and plan for the move.

B) What happens when I call Writer Relocations?

As soon as you contact us, an expert relocation consultant from the local office will get in touch with you and fix an appointment for a house visit.

Our Move Consultant will explain to you in detail all the aspects of an international move including packing, crating, shipping, transit times, insurance, unpacking, and temporary or long-term storage facilities that you may need.

Our experienced move advisor will also inform you about the other services that we provide such as International Relocation, Relocate within India, Orientation Services, Storage Solutions, Fine Art Handling, Office Moves, Hospitality Logistics, and Commercial Moving so that you can choose what's appropriate to your situation.

Our experienced move advisor will then plan your move. He will study your requirements in detail, survey the household possessions that need to be moved, and get back to you with the cost, timelines, and shipping options.

Once you get your move plan, you can make the final choices for your move based on the indicated budgets.

C) What items cannot be shipped in an international household items shipment?

Do note that hazardous materials and inflammable items such as gas canisters, aerosol cans, and firearms, cannot be shipped. Nor can you ship destructive materials like wood, brick, cement, etc, with your household items.

Please also leave out any perishable goods, or any other item that could leak, or cause significant damage to the items around it.

Your experienced move advisor from Writer Relocations will explain to you the full list of items that cannot be shipped or transported.

We have been using Writer Relocations for the shipping of our artworks for the Indian Art Fair held in New Delhi on January 2014.

Their service was extremely good, precise, responsible, and reliable.

I would recommend their services to anyone looking for a reliable and service-oriented shipping company.”

- Goutam Mukherjee, Gallery Sanskriti, Kolkata

D) Do you provide insurance? How do I calculate the amount of insurance?

Yes, we do.

Writer Relocations will help you at each step of your move and provide coverage for household and personal effects during an international move.

The expert move advisors at Writer Relocations will guide you through the insurance process.

When filling the international valuation insurance paperwork do keep in mind that in the case of any damage, you will have to get a replacement for the item in the destination country and so the value should be based on the currency of your destination country.

I want you to thank everyone for all of the help to get this overboard back to the US and back under the feet of my daughter. Although this was the Christmas present in Dubai she is now excited to see it again for her 11th birthday which is Sunday. Thanks again!”

Once your shipment arrives at its destination, you will get complete help from our end including services such as customs clearance, temporary storage (or even long-term storage), unpacking, and even disposal of the shipping debris.

The responses while coordinating the shipment is really commendable. Also, I would like to point out the professionalism and punctuality of the crew while delivering the shipment (including the staff) who collected and delivered my passport. I would like to rate 5 out of 5 for the overall assistance provided. Many thanks for hassle-free service.

Wish you all the best!”

- Deepti Yerunkar, Singapore to Mumbai, August, 2016.

F) Will you help me find an apartment in my destination country?

Yes, we can help you find temporary as well as long-term accommodation while you are moving to an international destination.

We are happy to help you negotiate your lease agreements and also be available for assistance when you need to renew the lease. Please check out the details of the Home Search Service in the Orientation Services section.

G) I do not speak the native language of the country I am moving to. can you help me?

Writer Relocations focuses not just on shipping your belongings. We also prepare you culturally for the move.

With our language and cultural training program, we help you understand the culture of the country that you are moving to. Our experts also teach you the basic communication phrases that will help you adjust to the new location easily.

H) I am moving to an international location with my family. Can you help me find a school for my children?

We understand how difficult finding a good school for your child can be.

To help you with this we offer School Search Service to find the perfect school for your children based on your educational requirements. We also provide assistance throughout the admission process.
